PROGRAMS IN THE DIVISION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Students have the option of taking CRJ 901 Criminal Justice Capstone or CRJ 900 Externship in Criminal Justice. Both courses are open only to students in their last semester and they must have taken the prerequisite course LIB 150 Research Methods in Criminal Justice. Students may opt for CRJ 901 Criminal Justice Capstone because of their interest in furthering their research agenda and education by attending a four year academic institution of higher learning.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS - CRIMINAL JUSTICE

CRJ901  3 CREDITS
CRIMINAL JUSTICE CAPSTONE SEMINAR

The purpose of the Capstone Course is for students to demonstrate that they have successfully mastered skills during studies in the Criminal Justice Program. In this course, students will create an original research project that synthesizes criminal justice theories, quantitative and qualitative methodologies and apply to an issue in the criminal justice field.

Prerequisite: LIB150 Research Methods in Criminal Justice