SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS IN THE NURSING PROGRAM

Effective June 1, 2015:

Nursing students who transfer college credits must have earned a grade of 2.5 (C+ or better) in transferable courses.

The passing grade for all Nursing courses (with NUR course code) will be “B”.

The section “SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS IN THE NURSING PROGRAM” in the “Division of Health Disciplines” chapter should read:

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS IN THE NURSING PROGRAM

Students must maintain a GPA of 2.5 or greater to progress through the nursing program and be eligible for graduation.

Students must achieve a grade of “B” or better in all nursing courses, and “C+” or better in math and science courses in order to proceed in the nursing program and graduate with an AAS degree in Nursing.

Students earning less than “B” grade for NUR courses will have to repeat the course once. A second failure in the same course will result in termination from the Nursing Program.

Inability to meet college and program requirements, including all academic requirements, will result in dismissal from the nursing program.
